

I understand that the banks are trying to weaken the phone privacy laws in Indiana. I want to voice my opinion to the fact that my phone line is a private line which I pay for as a customer. I do not want unsolicited phone contact from any business. I consider this a violation of my privacy. Thank you for taking my comments and please prevent this from happening. Sincerely Mike Cook